Toronto at a Glance

Is designed with the view of furnishing to the citizens of Ontario a guide that is short, clear and comprehensive.

The maps, street directory, street railway and other routes are accurately drawn to scale, and the information is up-to-date, 1920.

The historical, financial and municipal information is official, up-to-date, 1920, and is not contained in any other single publication.

To the citizens of Toronto, Toronto at a Glance is invaluable, while to those who would visit the city it is worth many times its cost.

When you seek a friend in the city, a prominent doctor, lawyer, merchant or specialist, hotel or home, Toronto at a Glance will give you valuable aid.

When you invest in property in a great city that now has 500,000 of a population and that soon will have more, Toronto at a Glance will lay the whole location before you.

The publishers have spared neither time, labor or expense to ensure accuracy, the same care will be exercised that those only who are dependable and leaders in their line will be accepted as advertisers in this publication.

TORONTO AT A GLANCE contains 32 pages and cover, a complete map of Toronto and suburbs—showing all streets, Toronto Railway System, civic lines and radial railway, parks, hospitals, cemeteries, educational institutions, race tracks, Etc.

Plates of Ward 8, Wards 1 to 7, Mimico and New Toronto, Weston and vicinity, Todmorden and vicinity, concessions A and B. Scarborough, County of York showing York Radial System, good roads, townships and concessions, stop numbers, mileage, etc., are given.

The suburbs are indexed separately from the City, under their own heads.
